SOFTSKILLS ABOUTME A compassionate junior doctor with one year of experience in successfully managing, treating, and diagnosing patient illness. I come with a commitment-to-care attitude and lay a special emphasis on listening and addressing patient concerns while taking an accurate and detailed history. I believe in patiently addressing all the concerns of patients to soothe their anxiety and apprehensions regarding the treatment and procedures. I am an enthusiastic learner and always willing to work with all the members of the medical team and listen to their suggestions and input to improve results and maximize patient satisfaction.
